September 2020

Course Title: SCWR 474 Evolution of Comedy

Instructor: Jeff Griggs

Email address: jeff.griggs@depaul.edu, jgriggs@secondcity.com

Class Time & Day: Thursdays, 5:45pm – 9:00pm, Online

Course Description:

For this quarter, this class will be a mix an asynchronous/synchronous class. I will post lectures, materials, and assignments on D2L every Friday, with due dates for the following weeks assignments. Every Thursday during our class time, I will meet with everyone for class discussion about the films and lectures.

This course examines the language, physicality, and structure of some of the most revered comedic films and television shows of all time. Students will analyze and discuss the conventions utilized in these works, how they influenced the era in which they were made, and what relevance they have to comedy filmmaking today.

Course Overview:

- based on lecture and student-driven discussion;
- Each class will present an introduction to specific topics of comedy film supported by clips and/or the screening of a feature film.
- The shared language of cinema will be introduced and used to discuss multiple levels of film comedies and their content each week.
- A final project will give students the opportunity to expand their interpretation of seminal film comedy.

Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion, students will be able to:

- Understand the language of mainstream American comedy
- Describe how the film or television episode is reflective of that era
- Identify what makes comedy function on a creative level
- Recognize how effective comedy is dependent on its context
- Demonstrate the ability to speak about comedy using a shared cinematic language

Term Project:

Prepare a presentation designed to convince your classmates that a film you select is a perfect comedic representation for a movie under the topic of Satire, Parody or Anti-hero. A research paper should accompany your Comedic Passion Presentation.

COURSE POLICIES:

Attendance

If a student misses two classes, the final grade will be reduced by one full letter. A third absence will result in a failing grade. The accumulation of two or more tardy arrivals to class (more than 20 minutes after the start of class) or two or more departures before class is formally dismissed may count as a full absence. Attendance is taken very seriously in this class.

Late Work

Assignments and exercises must be completed by the due date provided. Late work will not be accepted without prior consent of the instructor.

Laptops

This class has a no-laptop policy during normally scheduled lecture and screening class sessions. Please do not bring a laptop to class. Please do not use any devices with keyboards & screens (iPhones, iPads, whatever) to take notes in class.

Class Discussion

Student participation in class discussions is a significant portion of class. Students are expected to ask questions and offer comments relevant to the day's topic. The development of analytical skills and historical appreciation of subjective material will be a focus of the class and students will actively utilize those skills through class discussions.

Attitude

A professional and academic attitude is expected throughout this course. Measurable examples of non-academic or unprofessional attitude include but are not limited to: talking to others when the instructor is speaking, mocking another's opinion, cell phones ringing, emailing, texting or using the internet whether on a phone or computer. If any issues arise a student may be asked to leave the classroom. The professor will work with the Dean of Students Office to navigate such student issues.

Civil Discourse

DePaul University is a community that thrives on open discourse that challenges students, both intellectually and personally, to be Socially Responsible Leaders. It is the expectation that all dialogue in this course is civil and respectful of the dignity of each student. Any instances of disrespect or hostility can jeopardize a student's ability to be successful in the course. The professor will partner with the Dean of Students Office to assist in managing such issues.

Changes to Syllabus

This syllabus is subject to change as necessary during the quarter. If a change occurs, it will be thoroughly addressed during class, posted on D2L and sent via email.

Online Course Evaluations

Evaluations are a way for students to provide valuable feedback regarding their instructor and the course. Detailed feedback will enable the instructor to continuously tailor teaching methods and course content to meet the learning goals of the course and the academic needs of the students. They are a requirement of the course and are key to continue to provide you with the highest quality of teaching. The evaluations are anonymous; the instructor and administration do not track who entered what responses. A program is used to check if the student completed the evaluations, but the evaluation is completely separate from the student's identity. Since 100% participation is our goal, students are sent periodic reminders over three weeks. Students do not receive reminders once they complete the evaluation. Students complete the evaluation online in CampusConnect.

Academic Integrity and Plagiarism

This course will be subject to the university's academic integrity policy. More information can be found at <http://academicintegrity.depaul.edu/>. If you have any questions be sure to consult with your professor.

Academic Policies

All students are required to manage their class schedules each term in accordance with the deadlines for enrolling and withdrawing as indicated in the University Academic Calendar. Information on enrollment, withdrawal, grading and incompletes can be found at: <http://www.cdm.depaul.edu/Current Students/Pages/PoliciesandProcedures.aspx>

Students with Disabilities

Students who feel they may need an accommodation based on the impact of a disability should contact the instructor privately to discuss their specific needs. All discussions will remain confidential. To ensure that you receive the most appropriate accommodation based on your needs, contact the instructor as early as possible in the quarter (preferably within the first week of class), and make sure that you have contacted the Center for Students with Disabilities (CSD) at: <mailto:csd@depaul.edu>.
